CIRCUIT COURT CASES

Case No. 1: ETF Board is a Party

Issue – Member is appealing the ETF Board's final decision in an administrative appeal. The Board affirmed ETF's determination that the member should not receive pre-1990 WRS service credits for employment with Milwaukee County.

Summary – Plaintiff asserts that the Board's final decision:

- Avoids crucial facts relative to the case.
- Misapplies law.
- Is against the weight of the evidence.
- Is misleading.
- Is inequitable and unjustly enriches the State to the detriment of the plaintiff and family.

Status – A briefing schedule was issued. Plaintiff filed his brief on December 16, 2010. ETF's brief was filed January 18, 2011.

Attorney – DOJ attorney

Case No. 2: ETF is a Party

Issue – The payment of death benefits arising from the death of a WRS member. Plaintiff asserts that ETF was negligent in having the check made payable in the name of the beneficiary rather than to the estate of the beneficiary.

Summary – Plaintiff alleges that as a result of ETF's failure to properly make the check payable to the estate of the beneficiary, plaintiff was without knowledge that money left to the beneficiary should have been deposited into a separate guardianship account. Plaintiff alleges that its lack of knowledge that the money disbursed from WRS member's estate was to go to the estate of the beneficiary rather than the beneficiary, individually, has left it potentially open to liability.

Status – Motion filed to dismiss ETF from the case.

Case No. 3: ETF is a Party

Issue – This case involves the payment of death benefits arising from the death of a WRS member. Plaintiff demands judgment against ETF for the 50 percent of the death benefits it holds under the pension plan it administered for the member, together with taxable costs and disbursements.

Summary – Plaintiff asserts that such conduct on the part of the WRS member in failing to designate the plaintiff as the primary beneficiary of the death benefit under the pension plan administered by the ETF violates the plaintiff's marital property rights in such death benefit. Plaintiff further asserts that the defendant and ETF, if they have received them and/or possess them, hold 50% of such property in constructive trust for the plaintiff pursuant to § 766.70 (6) (b) Stats.

Status – Motion filed to dismiss ETF from the case.
